Su May 21 Minute for Missions: Jim Hancock

Baja Presbyterian Missions was established in 1964 to help the churches of the San Diego Presbytery work with the Mexican Northwest Border Presbytery to plant and grow new Presbyterian churches in Baja California. It raises money to help new churches purchase property, construct facilities, and supplement pastors’ income. Jim Hancock, the current President of Baja Presbyterian Missions, will provide our Minute for Mission today on the very important work of Baja Presbyterian Missions for our neighbors across the border. Su May 28 Student Classic Film Finale

SAVE THE DATE - Student Classic Film Series Memorial Day Weekend Finale OPEN TO ALL: “They Were Expendable”, the final film in the 2023 series, screens Sunday May 28th at 1PM in the Coronado Library’s Winn Room. In honor of those who have given their lives in service to our nation this film will be open to the whole community, adults, and students alike. John Ford’s dramatization of the fall of the Philippines in the wake of the attack on Pearl Harbor examines the human and emotional costs and the very difficult choices warfare imposes upon those who wear the cloth of our nation. Starring Robert Montgomery, John Wayne, and Donna Reed it is a history lesson that is both necessary and appropriate for all ages; tells a story everyone who loves the Navy should see.

Food Drive

GMPC’s Military ministry, Best PCS EVER, needs your help! Our pantry shelves are empty. Could you, would you, pretty please help us restock by leaving nonperishable items in the drop off bins in the Narthex and the Church Office. In lieu of food donations, we also gratefully accept monetary donations made payable to GMPC with Best PCS Ever noted in the memo line. Helps us share the love of Christ with our local enlisted families by connecting them to the support needed to make Coronado their best PCS Ever!

Pulpit Flower Dedications

Did you know pulpit flowers are donated after Sunday services? One beautiful arrangement becomes 5 and is hand delivered to those in need of some extra cheer. If you’re looking for an easy way to serve the church, a unique way to honor a loved one, or a meaningful way to celebrate someone, please contact Rachael Tisdale at Rachael@gmpc.org.
